BUILDING BACK BEAUREGARD

The Fuller Center for Housing is bringing its Millard Fuller Legacy Build to Beauregard for a weeklong blitz, Sept. 29-Oct. 4, 2019, during which hundreds of volunteers from the area and from across the U.S. will build 11 homes. This is in addition to seven Fuller Center homes already dedicated since May.

We expect more than 100 volunteers from across the nation to attend this build, but we need more volunteers from the local area to participate and show love to their neighbors in need. Please consider joining us for this life-changing week

Register or learn more at FullerCenter.org/LegacyBuilds

Providence is blessed, humbled and honored to be a host site for the Legacy Build and to be partnered with the Faith Community of Beauregard to build a home for the Ben and Meghan Robertson family. A special offering will be collected Sunday, September 15 for the home.

PBC NEEDS VOLUNTEERS TO HELP

- 1.) Servers for the Legacy Banquet, Sunday, Sept. 29
- 2.) Transportation daily from West Campus to worksites
- 3.) Pre-event and Post-event staging and breakdown

-Contact the Church Office to volunteer-

Pastor's Thoughts Dr. Rusty J. Sowell

Tremendous day at Providence this past Sunday. Providence, along with our Southern Baptist Convention fellowship, celebrated the sacred moment of Baptism. David, Natalee, Scott and Madelyn gave a witness to the life changing presence of our Lord in their lives. Truly a great moment for the Glory of God. An active several weeks before us, many opportunities to grow, learn and serve. Be willing and be teachable and God will be Glorified. I trust to see you in church this Sunday.

Music Notes Dr. Thomas R. Smith smith73@auburn.edu

The new choir year at Providence got off to a great start. I am excited about the opportunities that we have to make a difference for our Lord in the area of music making! We still have room for all ages in our choirs. If God leads, come join us.

On the other hand, just because you are not involved in a choir does not mean that you are not a part of giving praise to our God through song—a privilege that He gives to all believers. The congregation is the largest and most important participant in our "Praise Team" at Providence. It is all about you

Ladies Ministry Fall Into Christmas

Saturday, September 21, all ladies are encouraged to join us and bring a friend. We will serve snacks and beverages while decorating/making a wreath or frame. Bring your own wreath or frame, and a $5 donation to cover supplies. Frames no larger than 11x14, wreaths no larger than 15". -WOVEN Team coming together in corporate worship as we share the great hymns and songs of the faith. I see myself, the soloists, small groups of singers, and the choirs, not as entertainers, but as examples of joining with our entire body of believers in praise, as we sing from our hearts, with understanding, to our Lord. Come Sunday as an excited participant of worship. Come expecting to hear a word from God. In doing so, you will hear that word!

Mark Your Calendars for the Fall Festival

Saturday, October 12, PBC Kid's will hold its annual Fall Festival, starting at 10:00 a.m. at the East Campus. If you would like to volunteer or have a booth idea, contact Children's Director, Mrs. Kaye LeCompte, klecompte@providencealive.com Begin now to invite your friends and neighbors.
