Pastor's Thoughts Dr. Rusty J. Sowell

I'm thankful to be part of a caring fellowship. Over the past few weeks I've witnessed many moments as you have reached out to those who are hurting, grieving and dealing with difficult moments. What a joy it is to be a member of Providence.

By the time you read this, VBS will have ended, but not really. I believe a life long, eternal difference will be made in lives of both children and adults. The love that our VBS staff has shared this week is simply the love of God. Many thanks to everyone who helped out on this Blessed event.

Be sure and mark your calendar for our Liberty Celebration June 29th, 8:00 a.m. Worship in the Sanctuary East Campus and the 10:45 a.m. Worship at the West Campus. It's going to be a Great Summer. I trust to see you in church this Sunday.

Providence Pacesetters

Mrs. Deana Stone dstone@providencealive.com

Hello Pacesetters!

I hope your summer is off to a great start! Whenever a new season of the year begins, I always think of Ecclesiastes 3:1,... "To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven."

Even though that verse is not talking about the seasons of the year, I still think of the verse at the change of our earth's seasons. And it reminds me that God has a purpose and plan for every time in our lives.

If you're like me, the older I get, I sometimes forget how wonderful this season of my life is. Even though there are many, many things I can no longer do because of my age and health, God uses this verse to remind me of the blessings that can be found in this season of life, if I just look for those blessings. We, as senior adults, have a great opportunity and responsibility to use what God has given us to further His kingdom here on earth.

And one of those gifts that we can use is prayer. What a tremendous blessing we can be to others by praying for them. A lot of times I hear people say,... "If you can't do anything else, you can pray." Even though that's true, it almost sounds like prayer is at the end of the list for things we can do. It should be first!!! We get the opportunity to pray, which is so awesome!

So, remember, if you're feeling like at this time in your life you have no use or purpose, God has left you here FOR A PURPOSE. This may be the season that you are to spend more and more time praying for and encouraging others. A kind comment, a smile, or an encouraging word can make a huge difference in someone else's life.

Hope to see y'all at our upcoming Game Day on Monday, June 23rd, 10:00 a.m., west campus.

Blessings!

Deana
